

General Information about Freegal Music

- Freegal Music is a downloadable music service offered by Mid-Continent Public Library that gives you access to millions of songs in MP3 format, including Sony Music's catalog of artists. Also available to download are thousands of music videos in MP4 format. You can also freely stream most music at Freegal Music.
- To access Freegal Music:
 - Mymcpl.org
 - Select Books, Movies, Music at the top
 - Select Listen at the top
 - Select Freegal Music
- You will use your library card number to log in to the Freegal Music website.
- Freegal Music offers FIVE download credits per library customer per week. Music videos cost TWO credits. The week starts on Sundays at 11:00 p.m. Central Time. A download counter at the top of Freegal's website shows how many download credits you have used this week.
- There is no software to download from Freegal Music. Songs and videos downloaded will play in Windows Media Player, iTunes, and other popular music players.
- Downloaded songs and videos do not have to be returned and do not expire. You can keep them!
- Freegal Music downloads do not appear on your MCPL account.
- There is no need to place holds. Items are always available!
- You can stream an entire song before downloading to make sure you have the song you want.
- If your download gets interrupted, you can try the download up to two more times from the My Music page. The My Music page only includes titles you have downloaded this week or last week. Once you have downloaded a song or video twice from the My Music page, the title disappears from your list because it is no longer available to be downloaded again.
- When you click the download button, you will use one of your five weekly downloads regardless of whether or not you cancel the download. Music videos cost TWO download credits.
- Songs can be transferred to an MP3 player such as an iPod.
- Videos can be transferred to MP4 compatible devices such as an iPhone.
- You can use iTunes, Windows Media Player, or a third-party software like Roxio to burn songs to a CD. Copyright laws apply for all music and videos downloaded.
- MCPL's public computers can be used to search for and download songs and videos. You can download songs and videos to a temporary location on the computer and listen or watch using Windows Media Player. NOTE: Remember to download the songs and videos to a flash drive to take with you.
- You can use a Mac with Freegal Music.
- Freegal Music has an app for iOS, Android, and Fire devices which can be downloaded from the appropriate app store and used on your mobile device or tablet.
