One More Tip — looking at the map and type in a nearby place. Monzingen.de). If your place is not listed on the website, try de (.de), which stands for Deutschland (for example, Stuttgart.de). Another Tip – if your town with more than 5,000 inhabitants is covered.

What is this German word? Dust off that German dictionary and try your hand at German words. A great way to test your skill and learn new words. If you have a word you want to know more about, try looking it up in a dictionary or asking a native German speaker for help.

On October 3, Germany observes German Unity Day, which is a national holiday. This is the perfect time to visit the German-speaking regions of the country, including areas such as Bavaria, Baden-Württemberg, and Rhineland-Palatinate. Visit Little Rock, Arkansas, including a visit to Stuttgart, Germany. View the Heerwagen Murals on the third floor. The studio of German artist Max von der Tann is one of the highlights of the museum.

October is a great month for travels—the cooler weather and beautiful fall colors make it a wonderful time to explore Germany. For admiring German skills and enjoying the arts, check out the 73rd Genealogentag 2023 in Fort Wayne, Indiana. Long known as 'a most German town,' Fort Wayne is a great destination for genealogy enthusiasts and history buffs.

Are you already excited? I visited Arkansas in 2021, including a visit to Stuttgart, Germany. View the Heerwagen Murals on the third floor. The studio of German artist Max von der Tann is one of the highlights of the museum.

In other news, the 80th Deutscher Genealogentag 2023 will be Kleve, in North Rhine-Westphalia. For more information, see this year's themes, speakers, and exhibitors. Bavaria, the 72nd Deutscher Genealogentag 2022 just ended in Munich. I visited Schwabing, the neighborhood where Franz Kafka lived. Visit Schwabing today and see where Kafka used to live.

In December, we will have a German SIG. Bob's Introduction to German Civil Registration Records is scheduled. You can sign up for it at this time of the year. Whichever option suits you better. Of course, if you live closer, you can join us in person. The meeting in July was the last hybrid meeting. Our future meetings will be split: on Saturdays Zoom meetings only. Feel free to attend whichever option suits you better.

LEARN MORE
Manage Subscriptions or Unsubscribe